POLITICAL PARADE

By CLEM WHITAKER

The front lines in the flaming holocaust now enveloping most of the nations of the earth aren't the trenches and dugouts of some far-distant battleground. In this "total war" of terror raids and wholesale bombing, the front lines are in the great cities and industrial areas easiest of access to the enemy.

That stark truth, given heightened significance by the fact that California is so situated as to become the nation's first line of defense on the western mainland, has suddenly hit the California state legislature squarely between the eyes. And nearly every act of the legislature, from this point on, is likely to reflect it.

Newest of the California national defense measures to be introduced is a bill authored by Assemblyman Robert Miller Green of San Francisco, which originated with the Junior Chamber of Commerce, creating an emergency service air corps by organizing the experienced civilian pilots into a group to be known as the "Volunteer Pilots Reserve."

This act, drawn by Cliff Walk, civilian pilot and executive of the Westinghouse Company, is frankly predicated on the theory that "It may be later than you think." It would create a reserve corps of service pilots who would be subject to call for duty to ferry planes, transport supplies, act as fire patrols and possibly as instructors for rookie flyers. There are now 15,000 civilian planes and 45,000 civilian pilots, with accompanying ground staffs and equipment, throughout the nation, according to Mr. Walk, and by far the larger percentage are in California. The purpose of the act is to make civilian aircraft and pilots immediately and constantly available for non-combatant duties which would release Army and Navy planes for the vital work of protecting California's coastline.

Then there are several bills setting up the machinery for the California State Guard, which will probably be composed mostly of World War veterans, and which will replace the National Guard units now called into service. Under A. B. 151, authored by Assemblymen Lyons, Hawkins and Houser, the State Guard would consist of from 10,000 to 25,000 men.

A California Naval militia including deck, marine, aviation and engineering units, is proposed under A. B. 1190 by Assemblyman Evans, which is now pending.

Compulsory military training in all junior colleges is called for in S. B. 727, by Senator Swan of Sacramento, while military courses would be auothorized in all school districts having a secondary school under A. B. 1204, by Assemblymen Leonard and Thurman. Another Thurman bill, premissive as to cadet training in junior colleges, already has been passed and signed by the Governor.

Jan Kalas, Noted Musician Called by Death Saturday

Jan Kalas, noted musician, composer and highly regarded teacher of the 'cello, was called home early Saturday morning following an illness of three months.

In December Mr. Kalas suffered an attack of influenza resulting in complications which caused his death. He took a leave of absence at that time from the musical department of San Jose State college where he had been an instructor of his loved instrument since 1924.

Born in Czechoslovakia, he graduated from the Prague Conservatory of Music, played under the famous conductor, Karl Muck, as a member of the German Opera company, and coming to the United States in 1893 joined the Chicago Symphony orchestra as a 'cellist and he also taught in the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

In 1914 he came to Campbell and became a member of the music staff of the College of Pacific then located in San Jose.

He was one of the very few to have received an honorary Bachelor of Arts degree from the State college. It was in the same year, 1938, that the college symphony gave a special concert in the civic auditorium, commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of his graduation from the Prague Conservatory.

Adolph Otterstein, head of the college music department stated, "Kalas was an inspiration to the students because of his wide and varied experience and his death will be a great loss to the college."

Several years ago, when Campbell had a very fine men's glee club Mr. Kalas upon several occasions directed the preparation of numerous selections in their repertoire.

Campbell audiences have been favored with music by himself, his two gifted daughters and relatives of the Joseph Halamicek family.

His wife, Elizabeth Kalas, who was a choir singer, passed away several years ago, but he is survived by his daughters, Miss Bozena Kalas, a former teacher of piano at College of Pacific; Miss Helen Kalas, vocalist and instructor in voice in the State college summer sessions both living at the family home near Vasona Junction; and a son, Oldrich J., teacher at Edison High school.

Scores of friends and former students were present at the services held Monday in St. Mary's church in Los Gatos where requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Richard J. Curtis of St. Mary's, assisted by Rev. Father Duffy of Alma college, and interment was in Santa Clara Catholic cemetery.

Serving as pall bearers were James Bacigalupi, Louis Carboni, Frank Triana, Neil Schellback, Charles Hayward and Michael Antonacci.

Plans Complete For Afternoon Card Party

Mrs. Anthony Jurras and her committee are working hard on plans for the afternoon card party to be given by the Campbell Union Grammar P.-T. A. on Friday, March 7. It will be a dessert luncheon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ira Abbott. Cards and other games will be available.

The money raised at this party will go toward a life membership for someone in the unit. The money thus spent is used by the State P.-T. A. as a scholarship fund for worthy students.

The committee helping Mrs. Jurras includes Mrs. Clarence Warren, Mrs. Oliver Jensen ,Mrs. Dan Clark, Mrs. A. W. Wellington, Mrs. Carl Field, Mrs. Milton Robertson, Mrs. David Sanders, Mrs. W. F. Grattan, Mrs. Ira Abbott and Mrs. W. H. Van Dyke.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Jurras at Ballard 4021-J, Mrs. W. F. Grattan at Campbell 71-J, or any member of the committee.

High Orchestra, A Cappella Choir Entertain Club

The musical program that was presented Tuesday for the Kiwanis club by the Campbell High school orchestra, directed by A. A. Thielke, was an outstanding one. A slide trombone solo by Clyde Smith was very good. Mr. Thielke served also as chairman.

Dr. Cooper of the San Jose State college faculty will be guest speaker at next weeks meeting, talking about "Lions." Clarence Nelson will be in the official seat for this program.

P.-T.A. Father's Night Scheduled For Wednesday

The annual fathers' night meeting of the Campbell Union High School P.-T. A. will be held in the auditorium of the school Wednesday, March 12 at 8 p. m. Except for a very short business meeting to conduct some necessary unit matters, the evening will be devoted to entertainment.

Paul Pittman, deah of men at San Jose State college, will be the speaker and his topic will be "Economic Efficiency." Both the a capella choir and the orchestra of the high school will render selections, and refreshments will be served in the school gym, following the program. All parents and friends of students are cordially invited.

Grammar P.-T.A. Elects Officers

At the regular meeting of the Campbell Union Grammar School P.-T. A. held on Tuesday ,the new officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Mrs. W. F. Grattan, president; Mrs. Stanley Smith, vice president; Mrs. David Sanders, second vice president; Mrs. Milton Robertson, third vice president; Mrs. Homer Hall, secretary; Mrs. Walter Williams, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Wood, historian; Mrs. A. W. Wellington, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Grattan presided over the business meeting. She read an enteraining poem on publicity from the California Parent-Teacher magazine.

Mrs. Oliver Jensen, treasurer, reported on the money made at the Old Settlers' day luncheon.

Mrs. Anthony Jurras, study group chairman, reported that the study group had completed its series of lectures conducted by Mrs. David Hibbs, state chairman of the exceptional child.

The committee chairmen for this past year are asked to bring written reports to the next meeting.

Mrs. H. C. Ray, motion picture chairman of the 6th district, gave a most interesting talk on "Motion Pictures —an Asset or a Liability." Motion pictures represent the only art appreciation experience of many children, and often have a great social significance. The good pictures are many times very educational, but the wrong picture may develop wrong attitudes in the children. We are urged to follow the advice of well-known educational leaders before allowing children to see any motion picture. Such advice is found in the Parent-Teacher magazine.

A group of cowboy songs sung by Sue Stuckey of the 4th grade concluded the program. Mrs. J. W. Knowles was chairman.

The mothers and teachers of the 4th grades were hostesses at the social hour. Mrs. Davidson's 4th grade room won the prize for having the most mothers present.

At the next meeting, April 1, there will be the installation of officers with Mrs. F. J. Bohrman as chairman, instead of the program listed in the year book.

Chamber of Commerce will hold a regular meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Campbell Water company office. A new director will be elected and business of Old Settler's day will be finished.

Mrs. Rose Hanger entertained the degree team for the first and second degrees of Orchard City grange at her home on San Jose-Los Gatos road following their practice Sunday afternoon. They were served a lovely dinner and enjoyed games and music the rest of the evening.

Tea Honoring Society Members Next Wednesday

On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, March 12, the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Campbell Methodist church will give a "missionary tea" with all of the members of the former Women's Foreign Missionary society of the local church as honored guests. Mrs. Earl T. Buck, Mrs. Ira Abbott and Mrs. Rex Cornell are the committee on arrangements.

Mrs. William E. Kirby, wife of the minister of the Centella Methodist church in San Jose will be the speaker. Rev. and Mrs. Kirby spent several years in Africa, and Mrs. Kirby will have an interesting collection of curios from that country on display.

Miss Ruby Anderson of the grammar school faculty will be the vocalist for the occasion. The program committee is Mrs. Guy Farley, Mrs. Bessie Nicholls, and Mrs. John Brunswick.

The president, Mrs. William Lloyd will assist with the decorations.

All local women are cordially invited.

Sigma Sigma Club Plans Guest Night For Tuesday, 11th

The Sigma Sigma's are planning a guest night for their next get-to-gether, which will be Tuesday, March 11, at 7:30 at the Fig Tree Inn. The social committee headed by Mrs. Elizabeth Ribble is making arrangements. Court whist will be the principal divertisement.

The last meeting on Feb. 25, of the club was held at the manse in observance of Mrs. J. H. Bennett's birthday. Mrs. Alice Newcomb and Mrs. Carol Evans were hostesses, and the latter showed interesting travel pictures. Mrs. Bennett was presented with a gift from the group.

The many friends of Stephen Merrill who have been inquiring about his work in Los Angeles will be interested to know that he has been filling numerous singing engagements, but not for broadcasting. He has sung at the Huntington Hotel, Pasadena; in the Orpheum theater at Long Beach, at several entertainments of the movie stars and at various clubs, one of them the Men's Breakfast club, attended by movie magnates, producers and others of note.

Alvin Carter has written the Campbell post office force telling of his induction into army service. He says he fully realizes he's "in the army now," what with vaccinations, examinations, classification tests, etc. He left Sunday for Vancouver Barracks, Washington close to the Canadian border, as a member of the 18th Engineering regiment.

Frank Ingerson Speaker at Club Meeting Monday

With Frank Ingerson of "Cathedral Oaks" as guest speaker the Monday meeting of the Country Woman's club was one of the high spots of the club year. Mr. Ingerson along with George Dennison has traveled over the world collecting lovely and rare objects of art. Along with his talk many of these beautiful pieces were displayed.

Mr. Ingerson traced briefly the development and history of pottery and porcelains from the bronzes and mortuary pieces of the Han Dynasty to the height of the art as expressed in the Ting, Chun, Ming and Sung war. "All beautiful China can be traced back to the country of China," said Mr. Ingerson. He showed exampies of fine pieces of pottery and porcelain which had been made in European countries but showed the influence of Chinese design and craftsmanship.

At the close of his illuminating and lively talk Mr. Ingerson demonstrated the method of making a tile —a method similar to the one used in the making of enamel ware.

Mrs. W. R. Morgan presided at the short business meeting and welcomed members and their guests. It was announced that Miss Mary Crane was accepted as a new member. Mrs. A. W. Johnson announced that there would be a speaker at the March 17 meeting on the topic: "Painting, Prints, Persian Miniatures."

Tea was served at the close of the program.

Mrs. Ben Sewell was program chairman for the afternoon. Assisting her were the Mesdames W. F. Grattan, F. R. Andersan, A. W. Wellington, George Kidward, Mary Parr, Rex Cornell and Anthony Jurras.

Local Man Fined

The law requiring the driver of a car to stop and render aid when he has hit another car, can involve severe penalties if not obeyed, as Douglas Lawson of Campbell discovered Saturday. Judge Grandin Miller fined him $100 and put him on probation for two years, because he did not stop and render aid when he hit the car driven by Manuel Serpa, Feb. 21 on North Thirteenth street in San Jose. He also was ordered to pay for the damage to Serpa's car.

Officer Don De Mers, complaining witness ,stated that Lawson was on the wrong side of the street when the accident occurred.

Orchard City grange will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, March 11, in Odd Fellows hall. The first and second degrees will be given to a class of candidates. Members are urged to attend.

Dr. F. N. Plummer

Optometrist

Dr. F. N. Plummer has had long experience and wide knowledge as a specialist in eye troubles. Immediate attention to those delicate organs may save you much inconvenience and expense. His large patronage speaks for the quality of his service.

Some of us inherit eyes subject to certain defects. Others of us have taken bad care of our eyes when we were children. Any inherent weakness or any mistreatment of the eyes may cause us to need glasses. Because of the delicateness of the eyes no one but an expert should be allowed to examine and correct our vision. One mistake may mean a handicap for life in the way of extremely defective sight.

It should be a source of great satisfaction to the people of this community that they have conveniently located in the First National Bank building, San Jose, a man whose fine technical skill and experience make him an expert in examining for and fitting glasses. Dr. Plummer has spent years in making a special study of the eyes and is thoroughly competent in every detail.

If your eyes are causing you any trouble whatsoever, the wisest move is to see him immediately. Your trouble may be only slight and capable of being corrected at once with the proper glasses. Immediate attention to such matters may save you much expense and inconvenience. Telephone Ballard 80.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

As the state legislature squares away for action at the second half of its 1941 session, it becomes more apparent daily that demands of the labor lobby will provoke some of the hottest and most prolonged battles of the legislative meeting.

Despite pleas for unity and a more temperate attitude, in view of the national defense emergency, the labor lobbyists have revived most of the bitterly-controverted issues of bygone sessions—and have sharply increased their demands, instead of modifying them.

One of the labor measures, for example, is a wage and hour law, authored by Senator Shelley of San Francisco and Assemblyman Kilpatrick of Los Angeles, setting a minimum wage of 38c an hour until 1945, with 45c an hour thereafter. A 40-hour week is stipulated, with time and a half for overtime.

Another bill would extend the minimum wage law for women to agricultural labor, while still another would make the present law for women also applicable to men.

Yet another of the labor bills would prevent a farmer faced with loss of his crops due to a strike, from transporting workers to his ranch to replace those on strike.

Senator Swan of Sacramento, who apparently believes that the legislature can legislate good times and high wages, has an act to establish a minimum wage for men of $25 per week. The same senator has another bill directing that all laws be construed "to safeguard the rights of workers." This measure would write into the Constitution a guarantee of workers' right to organize.

There are scores of bills to boost payments under the Unemployment Insurance act even to the point where unemployed workers would be paid more for idleness than many men and women are paid for hard labor. And there are several bills, strongly backed by labor lobbyists, designed to bring farm labor under the Unemployment Insurance act, despite the fact that thousands of farmers couldn't possibly foot the bill for new payroll taxes without laying off some of their workmen and thereby badly aggravating the unemployment problem.

On the other side of the slate, recent decisions of the state supreme court upholding the secondary boycott, the closed shop and picketing to force employes to join a labor union against their will, have prompted a series of bills to outlaw labor excesses of this nature.

Farm groups, in all probability, will make a determined fight to knock out the secondary boycott, as the general use of this labor weapon might jeopardize the whole farming industry, even though farmers were not themselves engaged in any dispute with the union labor movement.

Under the secondary boycott decision, as it now stands, a farmer, not engaged in a labor dispute, might lose his entire year's income, simply because labor was engaged in a struggle with the processing company, railroad, shipline, or any other firm to which the farmer's crop had been consigned. Farmers will undoubtedly fight the "hot cargo" ruling to a standstill and this promises to become one of the bitterest battles of the session.

Somewhat in this same category are bills by Senator Hays of Fresno and Assemblyman Jesse Kellems of Los Angeles to outlaw closed shop contracts, and a measure by Senator Biggar of Covelo to ban picketing for the purpose of forcing employes to join a union.

In this writer's opinion, labor leaders, if they continue to insist on unreasonable demands, are very likely to come a cropper at this legislative session. The legislators recognize that farmers, business men and industrialists are prepared to work double time and treble time, if necessary, to aid in meeting the national emergency. And many of the lawmakers think it is about time that the labor leaders got in step!

Moreland School News

Moreland school has enlarged its cafeteria by the addition of some new equipment. Mrs. Martha Nelson, who started the cafeteria a little over three years ago, is still in charge and is still putting out five cent meals.

The Moreland school students and supporters are proud of the cafeteria and its slogan, "All you can eat for a nickel." An average of 98 per cent of the students enrolled, ate daily meals in the cafeteria last month.

To further indicate why the cafeteria is so popular with the students, parents and teachers here are three meals from this week's menu: Monday—meat balls, mashed potatoes, celery, canned peaches and choice of an apple or orange. Tuesday—macaroni with sauce, lettuce salad and an orange and an apple: Wednesday — vegetable soup, bread and butter, rice pudding, with raisins and grapefruit.

There is no limit on the number of helpings.

The seventh and eighth grade girls take weekly turns in helping to arrange the tables and to serve while the fifth grade girls help in the kitchen.

Visitors to the school this week included Dorothea Madsen, school nurse; Bernice Rose, music supervisor; William Drieschman, collector for the Bank of America, school bank department; and H. W. Jessen, manual training supervisor, and Mr. Jensen, supervisor of student teachers.

The seventh and eighth graders are following with interest, two San Jose basketball teams that are coached by Principal Bart. Concannon. In addition to coaching Spring's and The Schoolman basketball teams, Mr. Concannon also plays with them.

At the present time the Schoolmen, composed of teachers from San Jose and vicinity ,is leading the Hundred Per Cent league, and Spring's is tied for first with the Campbell Merchants in the open league.

At the present time Ermalind Vieira is leading the seventh and eighth grades in the number of books read during February. The leaders are Ermalind Vieira with 11; Lois Barbano with 9; and Delores Smith, 8. The total number of books read during Februray was 84, an average of four books per person.

Bobby Magnasco and Ermalind Vieira attended the four counties orchestra practice which was held at the civic auditorium last Saturday afternoon. Miss Gussie Hintz accompanied them to the auditorium. She made several records on her recording machine of the playing of the 130 piece symphony orchestra. These records were played back to the group and used to point out the weak spots. At the request of the music teachers present, Miss Hintz will make several records which will be used in the counties represented.

The motion picture shown at the school last Friday afternoon was a two reel colored film on Porto Rico. It was thoroughly enjoyed by the entire group.

A new addition to the reading table that met with instantaneous approval on the part of the students, was the Februray 27 issue of the Campbell Press. Of particular interest to the entire school was the column devoted to some of the activities of Moreland school.

---

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Krohn, en route from their home in San Francisco to Death Valley, to spend their vacation ,visited Monday to Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Smith .
